system, those are generally based on fees. But I will say this, our exam schedule, with the limited number of examiners that we have, which are looking at insurance companies,...

SENATOR ENGEL: Right.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...are stretched to the absolute cycle of time that we're supposed to go out and do these examinations right now. It might be nice to be able to get employees in the executive branch, but Senator Beutler, I'm sure, understands that we can't require the executive branch to do that, the Governor does that. And if the Governor has a hiring freeze, we've got to live with it.

SENATOR ENGEL: That's true. Thank you very much.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Landis. This will be your third time, Senator.

SENATOR LANDIS: Is this for speaking or closing?

SENATOR CUDABACK: This is for speaking, but you can close if you wish. There are no other lights on.

SENATOR LANDIS: Okay. I'm just trying to...in fact, perhaps, Senator Beutler, you and I could share some time...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Are you speaking, Senator?

SENATOR LANDIS: I am speaking.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you.

SENATOR LANDIS: Looking at subsection 13, one of the things that you'd recommend is to be clear that the actuarial statement be annual not upon request. That's one thing that you'd like to see.

SENATOR BEUTLER: It is, Senator.

SENATOR LANDIS: Secondly, you'd like to see that the actuarial
